

Use Permit – Administrative & Modification

The Planning Manager may refer any application to the Planning Commission / Design Review Board for action.

Use Permit – Administrative & Modification

- An Administrative Use Permit is a use permit approved by the Zoning Administrator for a use in specified districts based on a determination of compliance with standards set forth in the Base District Regulations and individual review of their location, design, configuration, intensity, and density of use or structure.
- The Zoning Administrator may approve modifications to any Administrative Use Permit. Modifications are limited to reasonable changes to the Administrative Use Permit that do not substantially alter a Final Design Review approval or any condition of the Administrative Use Permit. The Zoning Administrator shall provide written records of the decision and supportive findings.
- The Zoning Administrator may approve, approve with modifications and/or conditions, or deny after making the following findings of fact:
 1. The proposed use will not be detrimental to the health, safety, or general welfare of persons living or working in the vicinity, to adjacent property, to the neighborhood, or to the public in general;
 2. The proposed use conforms with the purposes, intent, and policies of the General Plan and its policies and any applicable area, neighborhood, or other plan officially adopted by Town Council;
 3. The proposed use conforms with the conditions, requirements, or standards prescribed by the Zoning Code and any other applicable local, State, or Federal requirements; and
 4. The proposed use, as conditioned, would not unreasonably interfere with the use and enjoyment of nearby properties.
- Prop 207 Waiver (Diminution in Value)
 - Title Report – If the title report is more than a month old, it will not be considered current.
 - Proof of signatures rights will be needed for LLC's or Corporation's.
- The Zoning Administrator may require a public hearing before the Planning Commission for any Use Permit application that the Zoning Administrator may determine to have special neighborhood or community significance.
- Decisions of the Zoning Administrator on Use Permit – Administrative and Modification may be appealed to the Planning Commission. The Planning Commission shall have the authority to uphold, modify, or overrule the decision of the Zoning Administrator.

Administrative Completeness Review

Staff will review the application to ensure all required documents and information has been included. If required information is missing, applicant will be notified that the application has been rejected until all required information is submitted. If the application is rejected, upon resubmittal, a new Administrative Completeness Review will be conducted. Staff may also determine if the request does not fall under the purview of this application type.

A.R.S. § 9-843. Prohibited acts by municipalities and employees; enforcement; notice

- A. A municipality shall not base a licensing decision in whole or in part on a licensing requirement or condition that is not specifically authorized by statute, rule, ordinance or code. A general grant of authority does not constitute a basis for imposing a licensing requirement or condition unless the authority specifically authorizes the requirement or condition.
- B. Unless specifically authorized, a municipality shall avoid duplication of other laws that do not enhance regulatory clarity and shall avoid dual permitting to the maximum extent practicable.
- C. This section does not prohibit municipal flexibility to issue licenses or adopt ordinances or codes.
- D. A municipality shall not request or initiate discussions with a person about waiving that person's rights.
- E. This section may be enforced in a private civil action and relief may be awarded against a municipality. The court may award reasonable attorney fees, damages and all fees associated with the license application to a party that prevails in an action against a municipality for a violation of this section.
- F. A municipal employee may not intentionally or knowingly violate this section. A violation of this section is cause for disciplinary action or dismissal pursuant to the municipality's adopted personnel policy.
- G. This section does not abrogate the immunity provided by section 12-820.01 or 12-820.02.
